Computational Thinking Learning Environment for Teachers in Europe

Scope of the teacher conference

This conference provides a space for in-service teachers from schools in Europe to network, to share their experiences, and gain insights into new ways of working with digital tools that foster students' computational thinking (CT) skills in their classrooms

What is ?

This teacher conference on Computational Thinking (CT), targeting in-service and pre-service educators all over Europe, will introduce teachers to a newly developed mobile educational application, promoting CT skills, called ****.

Agenda: 16th-18th July 2023

Sunday, July 16th, 2023 (start 3 pm). International teachers arrive on Sunday for a welcome gathering, ice-breaking activities, a welcome speech, and a keynote on digital tools and computational thinking.

Monday, July 17th, 2023 (all day: start 9am). On Monday, we start with a keynote to introduce digital tools in the classroom with the project ‹colette/› as an example. Then we continue with teacher presentations where teachers tell their experiences with digital tools, followed by parallel sessions of CT workshops

Tuesday, July 18th, 2023 (9-12am; optional all day). On Tuesday, we continue with ‹colette/› workshops until noon. Extra social events are provided for those participants who are able to stay longer (guided city tour, MCM trail, JKU campus tour, social evening)

Venue:

Johannes Kepler University, Altenbergerstraße 69, 4040 Linz
Costs:

80% of the travel costs and 100% of the accommodation costs in Julius-Raabheim are covered by the project (2 nights) for in-service teachers from Austria, Germany, France, Slovakia, and the Netherlands

Stay overnight?

Those arriving from abroad can book a room in the Julius Raab-Heim (Sunday-Wednesday). Rooms are reserved for conference participants. An additional night until Wednesday is also possible. More detailed information about accommodation will follow in May 2023.
